

Blue-Eye Training

The Benefits of Well Trained Facilities Managers to an Organisation

An overview of how undertaking an FM qualification with Blue-Eye Training helps to improve managers' skills & knowledge

Why Facilities Management Supports an Organisation

Businesses naturally want to concentrate on their core function without the distractions that come with having to manage the building they occupy and the challenges required to organise or manage the background support activities that occur therein.

The Need for a Trained and Knowledgeable Facilities Manager

A knowledgeable facilities manager will assist an organisation in its daily operations by practicing and sharing recognised industry good practice techniques for:

- ✓ Protecting the building
- ✓ Maintaining high customer service levels
- ✓ Developing staff and managing workload challenges
- ✓ Ensuring safety exists in all operational procedures
- ✓ Negotiating favourable deals with suppliers and set up workable contracts
- ✓ Managing technical activities
- ✓ Creating a positive culture for sustainability in the workplace and efficient energy usage
- ✓ Planning budgets so as to assist with cost control

In What Way the BIFM Qualifications Particularly Help the Business

Gaining a qualification will:

- ✓ Give kudos to the company in the eyes of the customers and suppliers alike
- ✓ Demonstrate to stakeholders that the company cares for and invests in its staff
- ✓ Assist with succession planning and help to retain managers
- ✓ Be a positive return on the training investment by realising:
  - cost savings over time; and
  - an increase in team performance levels attained
- ✓ Assist managers to take appropriate levels of responsibility
- ✓ Encourage managers to apply industry good practice techniques
- ✓ Gain or protect accreditations in quality standards

In What Way the Qualifications Enhance Managers' Professional Capabilities

In studying for the BIFM qualifications, Blue-Eye Training will assist learners in developing their:

- ✓ Ability to prepare, create and produce effective reports
- ✓ Professional writing skills and document presentation
- ✓ Ability to work alongside and communicate effectively with others
- ✓ Time management efficiency
- ✓ Planning and decision-making skills